BREAK GROUND FOR HOSPITAL'S NEW X-RAY WING

(Picture on Page 3)

Ground was broken for the x-ray wing to the Annie M. Warner hospital at 10 o'clock this morning. The $63,000 structure will be erected at the north end of the original building.

The first spadeful of earth was turned by Philip Jones, treasurer of the hospital board of directors. Walter Dillon, administrator of the hospital, presided at the groundbreaking ceremony. Rev. Fr. Alexis Arnoldin, assistant pastor of St. Francis Xavier church, gave the invocation and Rev. Clyde R. Brown, pastor of the Presbyterian church, pronounced the benediction.

Nurses, employees, members of the board and the medical staff attended the affair.

Livingston Speaks

Richard W. Livingston, president of the board, in a brief address said:

"Nothing can so well measure the great achievement in medical science and the vastly increased need for hospital facilities in this area as this building — the ground for which we are breaking today.

"This structure will double our x-ray facilities and provide the very latest equipment available in this highly technical field.

"It will also double our dispensary facilities permitting the surgeons to better serve our patient needs and accident cases.

"In addition to these new facilities, the program includes remodeling of some of the areas recently vacated in the old building. This process will defeat the obsolescence of the original structure restoring, as it will, valuable building area to usefulness in the form of bath facilities, waiting rooms and office.

Dulles May Attend London Meeting On Suez Next Week

LONDON (AP)—The Western Big Three moved swiftly today to set up a Suez Canal users' association with the prospect U. S. Secretary of State Dulles may make a hurried flight to London.

An American diplomatic source said he understood Dulles was coming here next week — probably Wednesday. A British diplomatic spokesman said the invitation list for an international conference is still being drawn up — but the invitations would go out "shortly." The British Press Assn. suggested the possibility that Egypt may be among those invited. The general feeling here was that the conference would be next week — but no definite date has been announced.

Whether Dulles' reported trip was to take part in the conference or merely to discuss preparations with the British and French was not clear.

The war jitters that gripped this capital — and a large part of the world — after the idea of the users' group was first raised — have subsided somewhat in the wake of Prime Minister Eden's qualified promise to seek U.N. action before resorting to force.

Have You Registered?

Monday is the last day counties can register to vote in the forthcoming Presidential election, the county commissioners, who serve also as the election board, reminded today.

This evening the court house will be open for those who wish to register from 7 to 10 o'clock. Saturday registrations will be received in the commissioners' office from 8 a.m. to noon. Monday persons may register there from 8 to 12 noon and from 1 to 4 p.m. No registrations will be accepted after 4 p.m. Monday.

The law sets the "cut off date" for registration to permit the lists of voters to be prepared for use at the polls in November. Clerks said today that about 1,700 persons have registered during the last several weeks.

JAYCEES PLAN FOR JUDGING SESQUI BEARDS

Final plans for the Sesquicentennial beard judging contest were outlined Thursday evening at a meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce at the engine house, E. Middle St.

The judging will take place Thursday evening at 7 o'clock on Lincoln Square. First and second prizes will be given for the best full beard, the fanciest trim, the most colorful, the most unique and the "bravest attempt." The grand winner will receive a bond and a portrait picture at Lane's Studio.

In connection with the beard raising contest and the Sesqui, the Jaycees decided to set up a "jail" on Lincoln Square starting Saturday. "Military police" in Union and Confederate costumes will "arrest" men without Sesqui buttons and the "fine" will be to purchase a button or a Sesqui derby.

The program is held to help raise funds to cover to cost of the Sesqui program.

Hear Chest Drive Plans

Gordan Webster outlined to the Junior Chamber plans for a Community Chest drive dinner to be held Monday evening, October 8, at the Moose home marking the "kick-off" of the annual Community Chest drive. Following his talk the Jaycees voted to attend the dinner and the members will join other service club members in conducting the borough-wide solicitation following the meeting.

Donald Becker and Arthur Eckert were selected as a committee to secure a gift to be presented to National Jaycee President Wendell Ford September 28 at a meeting to be held in Lancaster.

Further plans were outlined for the "Fly-in" of aviators September 23 by committee chairman, Jack Bartlett. Plans were announced for attendance at a Oriole-Yankee baseball game Tuesday and a bus tour October 12. Thomas Metz, general chairman for the Christmas stocking program outlined plans for that activity.

Gen. Paul Addresses Fourteen Alumni Clubs And Freshmen Entering Gettysburg College

General Willard S. Paul, president of Gettysburg College, outlined the needs of the college in a telephone address to 14 Gettysburg College alumni clubs in Maryland, District of Columbia, New Jersey and Pennsylvania Thursday night from Harrisburg.

More than 80 alumni, undergraduates and new students attended the dinner meeting of the Adams County Alumni Association at Hummer Hall where Dr. Wilbur E. Tilber, dean emeritus of Gettysburg College, told the incoming freshmen about the college.

Other clubs holding "new student" meetings were: Baltimore, Harrisburg, Lebanon County, North Central Pennsylvania, Northern New Jersey, Philadelphia Faithful Fifty, Pittsburgh, Reading, Berks County, Somerset South Jersey and Washington, D. C.

What Gettysburg Produces

"To those entering Gettysburg College for the first time, I too am a newcomer to the campus," General Paul said. "You and I have much to learn together. One of the first things is for us to become acquainted with the alumni. One of these days you will join their ranks. To those outside our family circle they, the alumni, are the product of our work here—selection, teaching, training. If the work has been well done, they show it and people say with pleasure—that's what Gettysburg produces. Now if the work hasn't been well done the people will say the same thing, that's what Gettysburg produces, but the accent and tone are different. While in the one, all Gettysburgians take pride, in the other we are ashamed and crushed."

Knows Gettysburg Grads

"I have known Gettysburg graduates since 1922, for over 30 years."

I like what I have seen. I'm sure you will agree with me, Gettysburg produces character and ability. Whether you join the alumni ranks as a graduate or not the future of the college is strongly influenced by what you become.

What you become is entirely in your hands, your future is what you make it. The facilities, the Christian environment, the teaching, training, counseling and faculty help is there. The potential is large, the time always short. The four years ahead mean work, hard work, conscientious work; they mean fun, too, and new friends, new experiences; they mean cooperation, being able to take it; they mean building and maintaining Christian character. Please consider me available to you whenever the path gets too steep or too rough. I'm glad you chose Gettysburg and Gettysburg chose us. The Gettysburg College family welcomes you.

Had Active Life

"I have led a busy, happy and very active life. For over 30 years I had a career as a professional Army officer. It was varied with routine and important assignments. I enjoyed it, particularly my association with young men. At one time I had the privilege to organize and train the first teenage division in the United States Army with over 17,000 young men whose average age was 19 years. In a parochial sense I have been teaching youth throughout my Army career. I think I know them. I know I like them. I am convinced that association with youth stimulates one, if he can take it. "Also I believe one should keep constructively active so long as

Eisenhower Will Speak In Peoria; Give Nixon Sendoff

The Associated Press

The White House announced today that President Eisenhower will make a major farm speech in Peoria, Ill., and give Vice President Nixon a personal sendoff on the latter's campaign trip.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty told a news conference here today that President Eisenhower decided today to speak in Peoria Sept. 25, at the Bradley University field house, on the farm issue.

Next Tuesday, he said, the President will speak at a breakfast at the Washington National Airport from which Nixon will leave on a 15,000-mile, 32-state campaign speaking tour.

Stevenson's assertion that Eisenhower is not master of his own house in the Republican lineup, drew a sharp reply from Hagerty. "I think it's ridiculous," Hagerty said.

The press secretary said Eisenhower watched "a part" of Stevenson's televised appearance last night but did not see it all. He said Eisenhower himself had no comment.

Eisenhower will make a nationally televised and radio-cast appearance on CBS Wednesday night, speaking from a studio in Washington.

Hagerty said he could not disclose the topic to be discussed. The President will speak from 8:30 to 9 P.M. EST on a program sponsored by the GOP National Committee.

The Peoria farm speech will be televised and broadcast nationally by CBS from 8:30 to 9 P.M. EST. Hagerty said the broadcast will be sponsored by Illinois Republicans.

He said Eisenhower will fly to Peoria and probably will stay there overnight. He said the President plans to have an informal dinner with Gov. William G. Stratton, Sen. Everett Dirksen and other Republican candidates.

The Nixon sendoff breakfast, to be sponsored by the National Committee, will be a sendoff also for other GOP campaign speakers, including members of what the GOP calls its "truth squad" named to counter statements made by former President Harry S. Truman.

Hagerty said a Sept. 21 trip by the President to the national plowing contest at Newton, Iowa, probably will be a one-day affair. He said the President may land at Des Moines and motor to Newton.

TWO ELKS GIVEN

operating in its early years, and concluded with the observation that "they must find much to be pleased with today."

State President A. Lewis Heisey, Middletown, pointed out that Gettysburg Lodge and the Pennsylvania State Elks Association are both observing golden anniversaries this year. He urged members to preserve their heritage of freedom and democratic way of life by dedicating themselves to the four cardinal principles of Elksdom — charity, justice, brotherly love and fidelity. He said, "The future history depends on how members live by the four cardinal principles of our lodge. Live each day as though it may be your last. Learn to love and live according to Elksdom principles. Please accept my congratulations for the past 50 years of your lodge and my best wishes for the second half century."

After paying tribute to Mr. Holzworth and Mr. Grenoble on their combined total of 100 years of work in the Elks, Bohn said, "This is Civilian Defense Week and Elksdom is observing it with all it implies."

Fears Compacency

"We have a danger in this country through too much complacency. I hope to awake members of the order to this complacency. There is danger to our youth. Our teenagers are the finest group ever but the word 'teen-ager' is often wrongly used. How many times is credit ever given them? Rarely. Our Youth Activities program is charged with the duty of making them have faith in us."

Continuing the speaker asserted, "We can overcome this complacency through continued efforts in youth activities and by remaining intent in community affairs. I am asking this lodge and all Elksdom to be alive toward the dangers that confront us. Our order has 1,800 lodges and approximately 1,200,000 members. I ask all to work with our organization and our program this year as a means of combating communism. We can build through Elksdom which will mean a stronger America."

Given War Bond

At the conclusion of his address Mr. Bohn was presented a war bond by Mr. McCullough on behalf of the local lodge.

The program closed with the benediction by Donald E. Myers, lodge chaplain, who also gave the invocation.

IKE WILL SEE MENZIES TODAY; RETURNS LATER

The Associated Press

President Eisenhower interrupts a rest at his farm estate today to fly back to Washington for talks on the tense Suez Canal situation.

Eisenhower, who drove here Wednesday for a Republican rally kicking off his re-election campaign, planned to spend a few hours in the capital, chiefly for a talk with Prime Minister Robert Menzies of Australia. Menzies was the chief Western negotiator in futile Suez talks with Egypt's President Nasser.

A Rest Period

In what was primarily designed as a rest period before he begins formal campaigning next week, Eisenhower kept in close touch with Suez and other developments.

Three times yesterday he talked with Secretary of State Dulles by telephone. Their final conversation concerned a note from Soviet Premier Bulganin in reply to Eisenhower's Aug. 4 letter calling on the Russians to help create a "new spirit" in international relations and to join in effective disarmament.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said the Bulganin note will be made public later. He declined to discuss its contents.

Eisenhower will fly back to Gettysburg late today to spend the weekend with Mrs. Eisenhower and three of their grandchildren.

BIGLERVILLE'S BUSINESS CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Members of the Biglerville Business Club held a dinner meeting in Ditzler's restaurant, Biglerville, on Wednesday evening. William Lerew, president of the club, presided. Traffic conditions, parking problems and juvenile delinquency in the Biglerville district were discussed.

Members reported an increase in traffic violations, vandalism on private properties and some cases of shoplifting. Club members agreed that "firm penalties should be levied" and that businessmen should be alerted to known offenders.

Burgess John E. Thomas reported the Biglerville Borough Council recently passed an ordinance to restrict parking to two hours from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on North and South Main Sts. On N. Main St. the restricted zone will extend from the square to the Cemetery Road beyond the O. C. Rice and Son farm machinery building. On S. Main St. the restricted area will be from the square to the intersection of Main and Hanover Sts., near the Biglerville garage. The parking ordinance will be enforced when signs now on order are installed, the burgess said. Mr. Thomas said three lights will be placed for the St. Paul's Lutheran Church parking lot which has been hard surfaced by the church to give closer and safer parking space for members and the public.

Months ago, the Church Council made an agreement with the borough council that the large parking lot back of the church would be surfaced by church funds and made available for public parking during six days of the week if the borough would surface the alley leading to the lot. The construction work of both the alley and the parking lot is completed and parking lines are marked on the lot.

In the near future officers of the Biglerville Business Club will meet to select committees to plan for the next Christmas parade in Biglerville early in December. The next regular club meeting will be held his health permits. In this manner he is happier. I know that to be true because I have tried both and I am thoroughly convinced that the future of this nation is dependent, to a larger degree than most of us realize, on the product of the small liberal arts colleges, the leaders of the future. And finally, of these colleges my observation and past experience, in dealing with thousands of young men, convinces me that the church-related college produces generally a graduate of sounder integrity, and honesty, and a better Christian.

Wants Christian Citizens

"I have been on the periphery of educational circles most of my adult life and I have a deep interest in it. I believe I can help make Gettysburg College and its product better leaders and good on October 10 at 6:30 p.m. in Ditzler's restaurant.

Christian Citizens.

"To both the new students and the alumni. This is your college. You are entitled to know how we are doing and what we are thinking insofar as it is possible to proclaim publicly. Six weeks is a short time in which to get thoroughly conversant with all the varied activities of Gettysburg College. My findings today are these — incomplete it is true.

"Physically and facility-wise — we are cramped for space — office space for administration; office space for our professors; dormitory space for both men and women but especially the latter; space for social activities and space for athletic activities as well as living accommodations for our faculty. We are looking for new parking areas. Cars for Freshmen have been prohibited this year. However, accessibility for fire trucks as well as general convenience requires the campus roads to be clear. This necessitates parking spaces to accommodate those cars normally on campus roads.

Open More Offices

"I announce with regret one of my first official acts — taken only after careful and prayerful consideration. We are moving into the 'White House,' now occupied by the chaplain, some of our most crowded offices, administration and faculty. This will ease temporarily our immediate space problem. We have broken ground for two new dormitories for men. We expect to start on a new dining hall soon and rehabilitate Huber Hall to accommodate more women. The Woman's League is raising funds for rehabilitation of Brum Hall. All of this helps. But it is not a cure. We need right now a new administration building, a new infirmary, and a recreation building. In the immediate future more dormitories, more classrooms, and apartments for our faculty. These are not growth but for accommodating our present strength.

"Our curriculum is sound. We have twenty new replacements and additions to the faculty. That will give us a ratio of one to sixteen. The instruction load is spotty but eventually we should have a better ratio and a chance for more faculty counseling. A full-time professor in fine arts has joined us.

"Our faculty salaries are too low. We average two to three hundred dollars below the competing schools in our immediate vicinity and we are running behind. That we must correct, as well as provide a living wage especially for the younger and less well established faculty members.

Make Chapel Changes

"Henry Bream goes around smiling, so our prospects athletically can't be too bad. Yovicsin takes the 'Gil Dobie' approach so I can't tell how we stand. But looking over his squad now coming into shape I'd say that to my unprofessional eye he's doing alright. We'll get our first glimpse on Saturday.

"From a student angle I hope to see the Student Senate take firm action concerning drinking on campus as well as cheating. I'm sure neither of these are rampant here, but Gettysburg College doesn't want either and from my experience and information they do exist.

"We have made a change in Chapel. We have decided to keep Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday for purely religious services, use Friday for convocation and drop Monday from Chapel, use it for group meetings, faculty counseling. Attendance at two chapel services is required each week, figured on a week not semester basis, with two cuts a semester. No make-ups allowed. Voluntary vespers services, open to the public, will be held each Sunday evening. I will take chapel each Wednesday, the Dean each Friday. Once a week an outstanding minister will occupy the pulpit, Tuesday or Thursday, and once each month we hope to have an outstanding public figure from government or business speak in Chapel.

Recreation Center

"Let me project Hen Bream's Field House. We are changing this name to recreation center for the very simple reason that what we want is a Recreation Center. Obviously, with bowling alleys, handball and squash courts, and indoor track, a well equipped gym, a larger swimming pool, an indoor cage for baseball, as well as means for various other sports one can carry over into later years it will be a Recreation Center. This is a must now so that the women can have adequate facilities in the present Eddie Plank Gym. We have the site—now we need dollars.

"Old Dorm" will have to be rehabilitated in the near future. It was last gone over 31 years ago. This is our oldest building with its history should be kept intact so far as possible. It occurs to me that it might be made into a gallery and part of our library—we will need expansion of the latter before too long and due to its location it will be difficult to build an addition to the library itself. This would give us an historic and adequate set-up.

"We should have a building which will bring under one roof all of those studies relating to man.

"We study the biologic, the psychological, the sociologic, etc.—but we fail to integrate them. . . . Let us have at Gettysburg a course or courses that inter-relate and bring together those studies that deal with man so that we leave college with some knowledge of how one's behavioral patterns work with anatomy, physiology and environment. This isn't a must but a very desirable future action.

Need $1,800,000

"To sum up our situation right now like most colleges we need dollars and more dollars. Stine Hall and the new dormitories will amortize themselves. We must pay off the chapel debt of around $150,000 and the dining hall, $500,000 before we go further. We need about $400,000 for an administration building and that is an immediate need. We need the recreation center badly—that's another $750,000. That totals $1,800,000.

"You can expect the administration to do all that we can to get these projects under way. But it is your college too, and we look to you for that fine loyal support we must have. Active support. Financial support. And I am sure each of you know some alumnus who is willing and able to help get these things under way."

New students from Adams County who were present at the meeting here were: Helen R. Barley, Susan Baumgardner, Susan Britcher, Allen E. Cluney, Waldo Hartman, Joyce Kendlehart, Jack Kunkel, Robert Sowers Jr., Wayne Stover, Skene Wagnild, David Weaver, Gerry Wentz and Keith Wolff.

Other new students who are enrolled at Gettysburg from the county are: Garnet N. Coble Jr., Richard Davies, James Gilbert, Robert Howell Jr., Joanne Kratzert, Rodney Miller Jr., Constance Schroll, Sara Shetter, Donald Wiesman and Thomas J. Winter.

C. Paul Cessa, alumni secretary, spoke briefly and paid tribute to the officers of the Adams County Club. Toastmaster Orville Orner introduced Mrs. Cora Berkey, class of 1894, the first woman to graduate from Gettysburg College. Chaplain Rev. Edwirth Korte offered invocation.

The officers of the Adams County club are: President, Orville B. Orner; vice president, Mrs. M. Louella Baumgardner; secretary, Mrs. Marguerite Long; treasurer, Henry Hersh, and representative to the alumni council, Rev. Dr. H. W. Sternat. The executive committee is composed of Mrs. Marion Allison, Ralph E. Barley and S. M. Raffensperger.

Club Members Are Urged To Parade

Taneytown Firemen Report $2,480 Profit

A profit of $2,480.72 from the recent carnival was reported at a recent meeting of the Taneytown Volunteer Fire Company No. 1. Receipts were $8,709.85 and expenses were $6,229.69.

Firemen responded to one fire call and the ambulance was summoned five times during August, it was reported. One member applied for membership. A contestant will be entered in the Miss Fire Prevention contest at Manchester.

BREAK GROUND

"This structure is not part of the new building program — one half of which was recently finished. The need for the early completion of the second unit is greater than ever.

Use Ford Funds

"The structure we start today is made possible by the allotment made us by the Ford Foundation plus reserve funds that the successive boards of directors have husbanded over a period of years in anticipation of the time when the original building would have to be restored.

"Thus this ground-breaking ceremony takes on particular significance in that it marks fulfillment of an important need to the health and well-being of the people of this community—and, at the same time, it reflects the recognition and acceptance of public service and the responsibilities of public trusteeship on the part of the Ford Foundation, the directors and personnel of the hospital and the people of the community it serves. It is a fine example of people doing for themselves and re-investing in the community to the benefit of all.

"We undertake this project in that spirit and in the certainty that the structure will well serve this community."

SALZINGER APPOINTED

Salzinger, now with the rank of sergeant, is stationed at the Dauphin substation of the State Police. The present warden, John C. Seip, who had been slated to become administrative deputy warden, resigned Thursday.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO
Committees For Hospital Are Announced: Standing committees to serve the board of directors of the Warner Hospital for the next year were named by the new president, Dr. E. H. Markley, at the regular September meeting of the board Friday evening at the Nurses' Home. Seventeen members attended.

The board announced the employment of a second technician at the hospital, Miss Virginia Clark, who comes here from Taunton State Hospital, Taunton, Massachusetts, where she served in a similar position since November 1, 1937. She will report for duty at the Warner Hospital on September 22.

New Committees: The newly appointed board committees follow with the chairman named first in each instance: Executive, The Rev. Fr. Mark E. Stock, Edmund W. Thomas, William Saeerling, E. P. Miller and Charles L. Elcholtz; finance, Henry M. Scharf, Charles H. Smith, Wilbur A. Bankert, N. B. Schurmann and Guy Stock; building, C. A. Bixler, Frank A. Waybright and Millard F. Stoner; house supplies, H. Harold Miller, James Alvey and Carl A. Baum.

"Swift" Palmer Resigns Position As High Constable: Victor A. "Swift" Palmer, York street, told The Gettysburg Times this morning that he has submitted his resignation as high constable of Gettysburg to District Attorney J. Francis Yake. The resignation was handed in Friday afternoon, he stated.

Palmer, who has been high constable here for more than a year, stated he expects to leave Gettysburg "within the next few weeks" to go back into the show business in the South where he worked several years ago.

Atlantic Fleet Is "Ready To Act" On "High Seas": Washington, Sept. 14 (AP) — Stripped for action, the United States Atlantic fleet took under the protection of its guns today all Lease-Lend cargoes in transit on the Atlantic between the North American continent and Iceland.

The zero-hour for this new phase of operations was 12:01 a.m., and the widely accepted view in authoritative quarters here was that it meant the start of the actual convoy duty by U. S. Naval vessels along a 2,000 mile stretch of the North Atlantic.

Children Are Not To Leave County Now: While the infantile paralysis restrictions will be lifted Wednesday and children will be permitted to attend school, church services and theater, officials of the Gettysburg Board of Health today announced that the ban prohibiting children 21 years of age and under from leaving the county is still in effect.

Children will not be permitted to leave the county for other countries until the bans and restrictions in those counties are lifted by the health authorities here.

Joseph Smith Commander of the Legion Post: Joseph E. Smith, South Stratton street electrician and veteran of overseas service in the first World war, was elected commander of the Albert J. Lentz post, No. 202, of the American Legion at a regular post meeting Monday evening in the Legion home.

Commander-elect Smith, who will succeed Roy A. Alexander as head of the local post, was attached to Company K, 162nd Infantry, 41st division, and was in France from October 28, 1918, to June 14 of 1919, having remained with the Army of Occupation after the Armistice. Eight weeks after he and 83 other drafted men left Gettysburg in September of 1918 for a brief training period at Camp Lee, he landed at Brest.

UNBEATEN PATHS

The beaten paths might have a thousand stories, but the unbeaten one is the more interesting because of its endless possibilities.

Many years ago one of my sons and myself took an auto tour through Nova Scotia, and when we had entered Great Britain Island we decided to get off the main road and explore all the less used roads, especially those that looked as though they led nowhere! Our first turn to the right brought us to a most delightful settlement—Isle Madame, or Arichat. I have never forgotten that delightful surprise. The little place was steeped in interest and beauty.

I don't like these tours that take you where you are introduced to something that has been told and written about over and over again. I like the scenes and discoveries that are new to me, and which I can take great joy in telling others about what I have for the first time seen. The unbeaten paths were the ones taken by our pioneers. Others followed and so we have our civilization as it exists today. Many risked and died, but they died with the knowledge that they had set the pace, and inspired others to carry on.

People do beat a well-worn path to places of interest and profit, be it a natural cave, the birthplace of a noted man or woman, a museum or library, or something else that has inspired effort and instilled in the mind the desire to know more. The unbeaten paths, however, have the greater appeal. They suggest a sort of secrecy and stir the imagination.

It often takes great courage to create an unbeaten path, like that one by Columbus, and the one first perfect trip by air from the United States to Paris, by Charles Lindbergh. An unbeaten path is always the most dramatic!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Clouds."

THE CHURCH

At first within a home they met
To worship and to sing and pray.

But by and by more room to get
When Sunday came, they moved away.

They gathered in a vacant store
The while their number larger grew.

At last a spire they bargained for
And built themselves a chapel, too.

The chapel soon a church became
With windows made of pictured glass;

An altar, decked with candle flame,
A bright communion rail of brass.

"God's House," of it the preacher said,
No fairer phrase of tongue or pen;

And yet, the great spire overhead,
Proclaimed the faith and work of men.

The pathway of the years retraced.
At first there was a dusty street;

To worship God they had no place,
No sound of organ music sweet.

Then, by and by, a door was flung
With welcome for the faithful few,

And hymns on Sunday morn were sung;
And from that seed a parish grew.

On what, back then, was barren land
With weeds and grasses over run,

A church forever more will stand
To mark the labor men have done.

The spire that I look up to see,
Above the place where God is praised.

Brings certainly the thought to me;
By men and women it was raised.

discussed by department attorneys

A federal court in effect ordered the Mansfield school board to admit 12 Negro students to the Mansfield High School. When school opened, a mob gathered, threatening violence.

Send Rangers

Gov. Allan Shivers sent six Texas Rangers to Mansfield to help maintain order, instructing them to transfer any students whose attendance "would be reasonably calculated to incite violence." Shivers said this was an exercise of state police powers, not defiance of the federal court.

The Negroes dropped their attempt to enroll. The federal court, having no official notice of the incident thus far, has taken no action.

A Justice Department attorney was asked, "What happens when there is open defiance of a federal court?"

He turned to two well-thumbed copies of U.S. Code sections and said, "There are two nearly forgotten laws on the books. Both were adopted after passage of the 14th (civil rights) Amendment and were designed to meet the problems arising out of the new amendment and Southern reconstruction."

14th Amendment

The 14th Amendment was adopted July 28, 1868.

In 1870 and 1871 Congress took notice of the unrest in the South and the results were two acts, known then as the Ku Klux Klan Acts of 1870 and 1871. Ultimately the Supreme Court in 1876 and 1883 declared parts of these laws unconstitutional, but left two important sections on the books.

If you want to bother to look them up they are now known as Title 42, Section 1993, and Title 50, Section 203, of the U.S. Code.

The first of these laws declares in essence that the President of the United States has the power to use federal troops or local militia "to aid in the execution of judicial process" or to prevent the violation of civil rights.

Braves Come From Behind Twice In Extra Inning Games To Beat Phils With Championship Form

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

The nerve-wracking pennant pressure Brooklyn's world champions have been so sure would make Milwaukee crack, today is squarely on the Dodgers—not the Braves.

Milwaukee never looked more like the National League champion than it did today.

It was hustle guy Johnny Logan, banged up with a sore back and out of the lineup when the Braves were in Brooklyn this week, who complained the loudest about how the Dodgers were being called "the old pros."

"We," said Logan, "are the young pros. We can play under pressure too."

Did It Hard Way
He was right. After knocking off Don Newcombe despite a 3-0 deficit to gain a split in the series at Brooklyn Wednesday, the Braves wheeled into Philadelphia last night and twice came bustling from behind to sweep a two-night double-header from the Phillies. They did it the hard way—winning 3-2 in 13 innings, and 4-3 in 12.

Third-place Cincinnati defeated Pittsburgh 5-4, falling 3½ games behind Milwaukee.

Hank Aaron, with four runs batted in for the night, tripled home the winning run for Milwaukee in the opener. And when his 25th home run failed to get the job done in the nightcap 11th, he nailed it for sure in the 12th with a sacrifice fly for Warren Spahn's 200th major league victory.

Cards Beat Giants
Bobby Thomson, fined $100 by Manager Fred Haney for a wild attempted steal of home against Brooklyn, wiped the fine off the books with a peg that nailed a runner at the plate in the opener 12th—then did it again in the nightcap ninth.

St. Louis defeated New York 5-0 in the only other NL game.

In the American, Mickey Mantle's first September home run, his 48th, gave New York's pennant-bound Yankees a 3-2 victory over Kansas City. Baltimore bounced Cleveland 4-1, and southpaw Billy Pierce became the league's first 20-game winner since 1954 by beating Boston 4-3 in 10 innings as Chicago reclaimed third place. Detroit beat Washington 7-2.

Even Season's Score
The Braves, now 10-10 for the season with the Phillies, were down 2-0 in the first game as Jack Meyer one-hit them for six frames. Then Danny O'Connell singled, Aaron got an RBI double and Eddie Mathews hit a run-producing single to tie it in the seventh. Taylor Phillips, who relieved Bob Trowbridge gave up seven hits in eight innings, but struck out six and left eight runners stranded for his fifth victory.

In the nightcap, Jim Greengrass and Andy Seminick tagged Spahn for back-to-back home runs and a 2-0 Phillie lead in the second inning. Then the 35-year-old lefty, who had three hits, doubled home two to tie it off Robin Roberts in the fifth. Aaron's homer was matched by Ted Kazanski's shot in the 11th off Spahn, but relievers Ben Flowers and Curt Simmons then walked the bases full to set up Aaron's sacrifice fly in the 12th.

A pinch single by Ray Jablonski and a single by Frank Robinson drove in the tying and winning runs for the Redlegs in the ninth inning at Pittsburgh. George Crowe's pinch homer had helped get two in the seventh for a 3-all tie, but the Pirates broke it in their seventh on Frank Thomas' 22nd home run.

Mantle Trails Ruth
Wilmer Mizell gave just four hits for his second straight shut-out while the Cardinals, winning their sixth in a row, got a two-run triple from Whitey Lockman and homers from Rip Repulski and Ken Boyer.

Mantle, who doubled ahead of Yogi Berra's two-run single in the first, homered in the third for Whitey Ford's 18th victory—matching his previous high (1953, 1955) in the majors. The homer left Mantle four shy of Babe Ruth's record-60 pace with 14 games to go.

Pierce was slugged for 10 hits, but rode in on Ron Northey's pinch single in the 10th to beat 19-game winner Tom Brewer. Walt Dropp and Jim Rivera homered for the Chicks, Jim Piersall for Boston.

Ray Boone and Jack Phillips had seven of Detroit's 15 hits as the Tigers beat Chuck Stobbs (15-12) for their seventh in a row. Paul Foytack won his 13th with a five-hitter.

PICK JONES TO BEAT GREAVES

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ralph (Tiger) Jones, the Yankees veteran, stands as a strong favorite to halt the rise of young Willie Greaves in their 10-round middleweight go at Capitol Arena tonight.

Greaves, a 19-year-old Canadian now fighting out of Pittsburgh, lacks the kind of record that ordinarily would disturb Jones. But the blond youngster's pilot, old-timer Jake Mintz, says Willie is the best thing to come along in 20 years and declares, "I'm not going to be surprised when they raise his hand tonight."

The bout will be carried on the usual Friday night TV-radio network, NBC, 9 p.m. EST.

In 56 contests, Jones has won 40, 11 by kayo, lost 16 and drawn 3. He's battled only four times this year.

Greaves has a 9-2-1 record, including three knockouts, in a little more than a year of fighting. He's won all eight of his 1956 tests.

Delone Here This Evening; Bolts, Cannors Also In Action

An intra-county scholastic football rivalry will be resumed here this evening at 8 o'clock when the Gettysburg Warriors and Delone Squires tangle on the local gridiron. It will be the first home game for the Warriors.

Delone, boasting one of its best teams in history, will be a decided favorite. The Squires trounced Hanover last week while the Warriors were losing at Westminster.

Littletown High goes after its second straight decision when it hosts Big Springs of Newville on Littletown's Memorial Field tonight.

Biglerville opens its campaign at Shippensburg this evening under its new coach, Tom Faulkner. Last week Shippensburg bowed to Littletown 12-0.

Hickory Smoke Is Winner At Reading

READING, Pa. (AP)—A black colt named Hickory Smoke captured the $17,233 Reading Fair Futurity yesterday with a new record of 2:15 1-5 for the Grand Circuit event.

Hickory Smoke, owned by Lawrence B. Shepard and A. C. Mudge of Hanover, Pa., and driven by Johnny Simpson, made the record time one second under the old mark, in the final heat.

He finished a length and a quarter ahead of Demon Run, who took second place a nose ahead of Time Me.

The old futurity mark was set five years ago by Duke of Lullwater in 2:06 1-5 Hickory Smoke finished his elimination heat in 2:09 3-5.

Eastern League

The Schenectady Blue Jays, 1956 Eastern League champions, will be host to the Reading Indians tonight in the opening game of a best-of-five series for the Governor's Cup.

The Jays and Indians swept by semifinal round opponents, Allentown and Binghamton, in three straight games.

Schenectady spanked Allentown for the third time last night 6-1 at Allentown and Reading overpowered the visiting Binghamton Triplets, 6-0, behind the two-hit pitching of 19-year-old Gary Bell.

Dick Bunker led the pennant-winners with a five-hit pitching performance. He fanned nine and walked only one.

Hank Bolinda (9-8) will start for the Jays against Reading's Tom Herrera (4-3) in tonight's opener.

The first two games of the finals will be played at Schenectady. The tournament will be completed at Reading.

In another Eastern League development last night it was learned that the New York Giants of the National League have canceled their working agreement with the Johnstown Johnnies.

LOS ANGELES—Young Jack Johnson, 203, Los Angeles, outpointed Ben Wise, 193, Oakland, Calif., 10.

PHILADELPHIA—Frankie (Kid) Anselmi, Philadelphia, outpointed Otis Woodward, 160, New York, 8.

SQUARE OFF IN SEMI-FINALS AT LAKE FOREST, ILL.

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
LAKE FOREST, Ill. (AP)—For the second straight year, two dedicated golfers and a pair of weekend players squared off today in the 36-hole semifinals of the National Amateur Golf Championship.

People who had been calling the 56th championship another Harvie Ward benefit began to wonder a little.

The difference between 1955 and 1956 was in the pairings. Ward, who seems to have the knack of bringing his game to a peak for the late stages of an important tournament, laid his title on the line against Joe Campbell, a brash, blond-headed college kid who doesn't quite believe he can lose.

Kocsis Vs. Magee
On the other side, 43-year-old Chuck Kocsis of Detroit, a top-flight golfer of 20 years ago who came here just for a little fun, opposed tall Jerry Magee, a 22-year-old Toronto auto salesman whose sight was impaired in a hockey accident some years ago.

A year ago Ward had a rather soft touch in his semifinal match against Billy Booe and he breezed through the final against Bill Hyndman, who had worn himself out upsetting Hillman Robbins. This time it looks a little different.

Campbell, a quarter finalist last year, isn't the kind of kid who is easily disturbed. So far in the tournament he has specialized in getting his approach shots so close to the pin that he can get down in one putt.

Has Qualified 14 Times
Kocsis has qualified for the reached the quarter-finals way back in 1935. Never sensational, he has been playing some of the steadiest golf of the tournament.

Magee was a finalist in the Canadian Amateur this year.

Ward, 30, must be rated as an odds-on favorite. He has won the U.S. and British titles. This week on the 6,790-yard, par-71 Knollwood course he has been 9 under par for 75 holes in only five rounds.

In disposing of John P. Ward (no relation) of Syracuse, N.Y., and southern champion Arnold Blum yesterday, the good-looking San Francisco auto salesman was 6 under for 30 holes.

Magee defeated Ted Gleichmann, Ventura, Calif., 2 and 1; Kocsis eliminated Rex Baxter Jr., Amarillo, Tex., 3 and 2; Campbell edged Fontanini, 2 and 1; and Ward was 3 and 2 over Blum.

Three Semi-Final Baseball Games Sunday Afternoon

Mummasburg, Littlestown and Emmitsburg will be the sites for local baseball league playoff games Sunday, afternoon at 2 o'clock.

In the South Penn playoffs Bendersville, regular season champion, plays at Mummasburg. Last Sunday Mummasburg upset Bendersville 11-2. Littlestown will be host to Hunters-town after having won 6-3 last week at Hunterstown as the semifinals began. Both series are best-of-three affairs.

Fairfield and Blue Ridge Summit clash on the neutral Emmitsburg diamond in the semifinals. Blue Ridge game then tangles with Cashtown in the championship series. Cashtown is idle, having disposed of Union Bridge in two straight.

The winner of the Fairfield-Blue Ridge game then tangles with Cashtown in the championship series. Cashtown is idle, having disposed of Union Bridge in two straight.

Expect Big Crowd For UN Handicap

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Atlantic City race track opened the entry box today for the Invitational $100,000 United Nations handicap, and looked for a field of 10 or 11 to oppose California's mighty Swaps in one of the nation's greatest turf course classics.

There were 11 certain starters in tomorrow's mile and three sixteenths gallop over the grass, with the status of Mrs. Harry L. Nathanson's Blue Choir awaiting a last-minute veterinarian decision. The Irish-bred, winner of the 1955 United Nations, strained a muscle on Wednesday, and has been undergoing emergency treatment.

Swaps, nevertheless, meets one of the toughest assignments of his colorful career, and must carry 130 pounds while conceding from 10 to 17 pounds to his rivals.

The presence of Prince Rainier and Princess Grace of Monaco, and the first eastern appearance of Swaps promises to bring out one of Atlantic City's biggest crowds. For homestayers, the race will be on television and radio (CBS network), with TV from 4:30-5 p.m., EST, and radio 4:45-5 p.m.

YESTERDAY'S STARS
PITCHING — Warren Spahn, Braves, hung on to gain his 200th major league victory although tagged for three home runs, giving six hits and walking only two (intentionally) for 4-3, 12-inning nightcap victory over Phillies, who were beaten 3-2 in 13-inning opener of two-night pair.

HITTING—Hank Aaron, Braves, drove in four runs with double,

Bullets To Oppose Colonials In Drill

A full-dress practice football game between the Gettysburg College Bulldogs and George Washington University will be staged on the college field Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Members of the Tri-State Press Association and other sportswriters will be guests of the college at the workout.

Following the drill visiting scribes will be the guests of Henry T. Bream, athletic director, at a buffet luncheon at the Gettysburg Country Club.

Rookie Holds Lead In Fort Wayne Golf

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP)—Bill Trombley, Dallas, Tex., rookie who has been travelling the PGA championship golf circuit for only three months, held a one-stroke lead today as second-round play began in the Fort Wayne Open.

Trombley ignored oppressive humidity and high winds on the 6,545-yard Elks Country Club layout yesterday to fire a sizzling 65, seven strokes under par.

The Texan, looking for his first title, wound up with 7 birdies and 11 pars for a 33-32 total.

Close behind with 66s were veteran Jim Turnesa, Spring Valley, N.Y., and Gardner Dickinson, Panama City Beach, Fla. Six others, including amateur John Carlson, of Palos Park, Ill., tied at 67.

Newville Needs But One Win For Title

Newville needs but one more victory to add the playoff title in the Bi-County Baseball League to its regular season championship.

Thursday evening Newville took a 3-1 lead in the best-of-seven series with Cumberland via a 4-1 victory. Carmen Reid hurled for the winners and gave up but five hits while fanning four and walking one.

Tonight the teams will again meet at Newville.

Score by innings:

Cumberland ..... 000 000 1-1-5-2

triple, 25th homer and sacrifice fly, bringing in the winning runs in both games as Braves took two-game lead in National League.

FIELDING — Bobby Thomson, Brave, twice nailed potential winning runs at the plate with clutch pegs from left field, enabling Braves to sweep two-night double-header from Phillies.

OPEN JUMPING SWEEPSTAKES AT HORSE SHOW

By DICK HOENIG
HARRISBURG (AP)—A super open jumping sweepstakes in which the winners will share $10,000 or more prize money is the added feature for the 11th annual Pennsylvania National Horse show Oct. 20-27.

Top jumping horses from 15 states and Canada are among the 45 entries still listed for the new jump for the Cannabis Challenge trophy. It is scheduled to be run off Thursday night at the 13-acre State Farm Show Building where the week-long show is held.

Gen. A. H. Stackpole, of the Pennsylvania National Horse Show Association, described the new event as the first of its type among the three major North American horse shows.

Plan 20 Divisions
Fifty per cent of the entry fee kitty will go to the winner with the runnersup sharing the remainder. A final entry payment of $150 is due Sept. 22 and Edward F. Kramer, executive secretary, expects more horses to drop out. Originally when the class was announced in April there were 26 tentative entries.

The sweepstakes will be only one of 154 scheduled classes in 20 divisions—again tops for the North American horse show circuit. The cash prize list, outside the sweepstakes, amounts to $35,000.

Top attraction each year is the international jumping competition and this year's show features a foreign team that has not appeared since 1949—Chile. A Chilean team headed by retired army Capt. Ricardo Echeverria sailed for the United States this week. Echeverria was a member of the four-man Chilean entry that won 2 of 11 international classes at the Pennsylvania National seven years ago.

Arthur Godfrey Stake
Other international teams represent the United States, Canada, Ireland and Mexico.

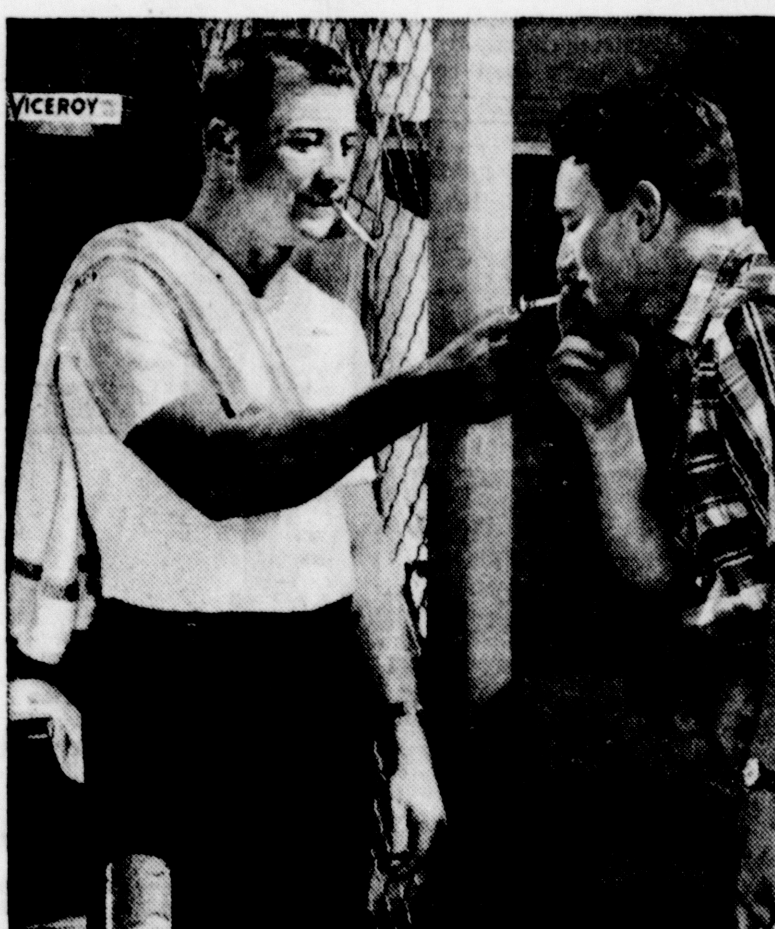

Appearing at his second Pennsylvania National will be Arthur Godfrey with a dressage exhibition. In addition Godfrey's Wednesday night national television show will be televised direct from the arena for the second straight year.

Kramer announced that a special "Arthur Godfrey TV high jump stake" for six top point winners, in earlier open jumping will be run off and judged during the television program.

New Argument Advanced By Stevenson At Harrisburg

By JAMES DEVLIN

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Adlai Stevenson campaigned today with a new argument — that Republican leadership "from here on" will be in the hands of Vice President Nixon instead of President Eisenhower.

The Democratic presidential candidate told a coast-to-coast television and radio audience last night the nation has a "part-time presidency" with power passing to the hands of Nixon and a "big business" cabinet.

"These are stern facts," he said. "To ignore them is perilous. They are the reasons America's human needs go today unmet. Nor will they be met so long as the President is not master in his own house."

Like A Convention

Stevenson "formally" opened his campaign in a convention-like atmosphere, with his supporters waving placards and marching in the aisles at a $50-a-plate fundraising buffet in Harrisburg's huge Farm Show Arena.

James A. Finnegan, Stevenson's campaign manager, said at least 8,500 tickets were sold, indicating a gross of some $425,000. Television and radio costs have been estimated at more than $200,000.

Obviously referring to President Eisenhower's health, Stevenson said:

"Everyone shares in sympathy for the circumstances which have created a part-time presidency."

Dependent On Nixon

"But we cannot understand — and we will not accept — turning the government over to men who work full-time for the wrong people and for a limited group of people."

"And the plain truth is that this situation would get worse not better in a continuation of this administration, because what influence the President has with his party in Congress has depended on his running again.

"But from here on the future of Republican leaders will depend not on Eisenhower, but the Republican heir apparent, Mr. Nixon."

Nixon Is Boomed

Stevenson's arena audience boomed Nixon's name lustily. "And the vice president," said Stevenson, "seems to sail downwind no matter which way the wind blows."

Stevenson said the Eisenhower administration took office on the pledge to install a "businessman's government" and "that's one pledge they kept." He said most Cabinet members represented big business.

"No One Leads"

"Then, partly by choice, partly by necessity — we regret President Eisenhower turned over to these men of limited interests and experience still more of the powers of government," he said.

"Where business interests are involved, cutting taxes for the well-to-do, turning our natural resources over to private companies, chipping away at TVA with Mr. Dixon and Mr. Yates, these men have been highly effective."

"But where human interests are concerned — the interests of the young and old, the workman, the farmer, where the need is to wipe out poverty, or to build schools and hospitals, to clear slums, even to distribute the Salk vaccine — there no one leads."

While the audience boomed Nixon's name, it cheered at every mention of Joe Smith, the Repub-

Elks' Scholarship Award Given

lean National Convention's mythical candidate against him.

Joe Smith And Gettysburg

Stevenson said he saw a newspaper report that the Republican campaign opened Wednesday at Gettysburg before "a crowd of more than 500 of the Grand Old Party elite."

"I went to my dictionary," he said. "Here is what it says: 'elite' — a group or body considered or treated as socially superior."

"Well, evidently Joe Smith didn't do any better in Gettysburg than he did in San Francisco." Some 75 live Joe Smiths from various sections of Pennsylvania sat in a special section of the arena.

One of them, Joe Smith of Philadelphia, told newsmen he was a Republican but had voted Democratic before and intended to do so again.

Stevenson said that since the turn of the century America has had 28 years under Democratic government and 28 under Republican government. He declared: "During those Democratic years, we abolished child labor, commenced unemployment insurance, old age retirement and minimum wages, made collective bargaining work, guaranteed bank deposits, financed home ownership, started public housing, set up a floor under farm prices, set up TVA and REA, protected investors through the securities commission, and consumers through the Federal Trade Commission, and lifted the nation from the rubble of bankruptcy and despair to a great plateau of abundance."

Stevenson conceded that during the 28 years of Republican leadership "there were to be sure some accomplishments that must not be dismissed lightly."

"But they don't even compare with these I have mentioned," he declared. "And that's why I say that to get things done America will once again turn to Democratic leadership."

He said he joined with President Eisenhower "in urging every American, regardless of party, to register (to vote) — and to do it now, before it is too late."

In Washington, Republican National Chairman Leonard Hall said Stevenson "tried to compare the 28 years of Democrat control in this country with 28 years of Republican control. But no one can

Adlai's Philosophy Given In "Phrase"

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Democratic presidential nominee Adlai Stevenson, formally opening his campaign last night, said in a nationally televised and broadcast address that if he were to put his political philosophy into a single phrase, it would be:

"Trust the people. Trust their good sense, their decency, their fortitude, their faith. Trust them with the facts, trust them with the great decisions. And fix, as our guiding star, the passion to create a society where people can fulfill their own best selves—where no American is held down by race or color, by worldly condition or social status, from gaining what his character earns him as an American citizen, as a human being and as a child of God."

speaking of this record without remembering two world wars and one police action that occurred during the Democrat years. . . . Also in Washington, Postmaster General Summerfield commented that "as expected, Gov. Stevenson's speech was completely devoid of facts, issues or substance."

Kefauver Speaks

Sen. Estes Kefauver, Stevenson's running mate, told the rally the people of America "want government with a heart."

"The people of the nation are liberal, not reactionary," Kefauver said.

"The voters of this nation, therefore, are Democratic — not Republican."

Kefauver said that for the past four years "the doors of the White House — like the doors of the Cow Palace recently — have not been open on an equal basis for all."

Suggests Audit Of Pike Books

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Leader has recommended a thorough audit of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission, including the books of former Secretary-treasurer James F. Torrance.

At the same time the governor told his news conference that "one of the things we have under consideration is what relationship he (Torrance) should have to the grand jury investigation."

Leader noted that he is "well aware" of the recent State Supreme Court ruling which restored another Republican commissioner, David E. Watson, to the commission after Leader fired him.

POINT OF NO RETURN!

More intently than ever the pilot now watches his dials, cocking a sensitive ear to the motors' rhythm. He has reached the point of no return. He dare not turn back.

Years of research by scores of scientists have perfected his plane. Hours upon hours have been spent in readying it for the journey. If something goes wrong now, the pilot will know instinctively what to do, because of his long years of training.

Like the pilot, you try to prepare for emergencies. You realize that without training beforehand, it is impossible to meet a crisis wisely and adequately.

The spiritual knowledge you'll need for these times can be found in the Church. Through its guidance you will learn to meet everyday problems with serenity, and emergencies with confidence.

Begin right now to strengthen your spiritual reserves of courage, faith, and hope. TODAY is your point of no return.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Sunday School Lesson

By H. R. and M. C. Gold

CHRIST AMONG THE CHURCHES
Revelation 1:9-11, 17-18; 3:14-22
Key Verse: Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me. Revelation 3:20.

When one of our Christian church leaders visits another land to address its churches, he usually has an interpreter. Saint John, writer of the Book of Revelation, served in a similar capacity when he disclosed the future to the churches as a messenger of Christ. He describes it as a communication concerning things that will come to pass which God gave to Jesus who, by his angel, gave it to his servant John. John in turn, communicates it to the churches. In other words, John was Christ's spokesman in interpreting the future.

To whom did John address this message? To the seven churches of the Roman province of Asia: Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea. Most of these places are only names now, but we recall more about Ephesus because of Paul's work and residence there. Thyatira brings memories of Paul's first convert in Europe — Lydia, seller of purple goods whose home was there.

John Saw Visions

These visions of John were supposed to be seen by him during his banishment to Patmos, a rocky island lying thirty miles off the southwestern coast of Asia Minor. There he was sent because he was a Christian to work in the quarries just as Germans, Poles, and Estonians were sent as slave miners to Siberia in the last war. This was undoubtedly a period of persecution in the early Church when the churches needed the help and comfort provided by these ministers of Christ. The whole book written by the veteran apostle is intended for the Church's comfort and warning during the conflicts of time and in preparation for the second coming of Christ. The number of churches selected, seven, was undoubtedly chosen because as the sacred number, it indicated completeness, showing that it was meant for the whole Church. Revelation contains a series of seven visions.

In the very beginning John make it quite clear that he is speaking to the members of these seven churches as a brother — one who had shared the same experiences and the same hope. They had experienced the same sufferings and persecutions as loyal followers of Jesus Christ. The Spirit spoke to him on the Lord's day and he heard "a loud voice like a trumpet" directing him to write what he saw and send it to these churches. Because of this introduction, it is generally believed that John, the author, was John, the apostle, and writer of the fourth Gospel and the First Epistle of John. All three books have doctrinal ideas in common as well as peculiarities of language, although Revelation is less smoothly written.

"Alive Forevermore"

John proceeds to reiterate what all Christians then and now know: that Jesus Christ is the first and the last and the living one. "I died, and behold I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of Death and Hades."

In the third chapter the author speaks to the Church in Laodicea in particular. A Church had been there since A.D. 60 and the letter Paul addressed to Philemon may have been a letter of that church. The opening words give a clue to the purpose of this special message: "I know your works; you are neither cold nor hot. Would that you were cold or hot! So, because you are lukewarm, I will spew you out of my mouth." Regret and warning flow from the remaining part of the passage. The Laodiceans have shown their indifference and have a reputation for a lukewarm religion. If they are not careful, Christ will reject them utterly, but not without sufficient warning. And this was definitely true! Unfortunately, they did not realize their condition.

The counsel given is as needed now among some of our complacent churches as then. The author advises them to "buy from me gold refined by fire," meaning that only that which comes from Christ is genuine and all else is worthless. Besides, they were to clothe themselves in "white garments," the symbol of righteousness. This was specifically pointed to Laodicea was famous for its fine cloth.

Then comes the invitation of Christ: "Those whom I love, I reprove and chasten; so be zealous and repent." Following this comes the Key Verse describing Jesus knocking at the doors of our hearts, waiting to be invited in so that He may offer us the Bread of Life and the Living Water.

Democrats Plan National Canvass

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader said Thursday Democrats plan a nationwide door-to-door canvass for campaign funds.

The solicitation, he said, will begin as soon as arrangements are completed by Matthew H. McCloskey Jr., Democratic national finance chairman.

"There are plans for the acceptance or solicitation of widespread contributions for the Democratic party," Leader told his weekly news conference.

He made the statement in reply to a question whether Democrats plan to raise a million dollars by this means for the Nov. 6 election campaign.

Volunteers For Lie Test; Convicts Him

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—A Hagerstown motorist said he was innocent of hitting another car and driving off and to prove it he offered to take a lie detector test.

So Joseph Bitner, 20, took the test.

Magistrate Paul Ottinger gave him the bad news. The evidence was overwhelmingly against him, Ottinger said.

Bitner was fined $50 and ordered to pay the driver of the other car $151 damages or serve 60 days in jail.

Mt. St. Mary's College

IT IS my pleasure on behalf of the administration and faculty of Mount St. Mary's College to welcome the students of the Mount, both new and old, to our campus for the new academic term.

It is with a feeling of pride that we begin our 149th scholastic year with one of the largest student bodies in our history. Yet while we have grown in size, Mount St. Mary's will remain, as her founders intended, a small independent college, dedicated to the task of developing intelligent, purposeful, cultured men.

The times in which we live have placed a higher premium on education than ever before. What you learn here at Mount St. Mary's is no longer of individual importance only. Our nation sorely needs trained minds to insure the survival of our democratic civilization. The opportunities in every field are boundless, and if we are to win the "battle for the minds of men" it must be won by such young men as you are.

Over and above the preparation which you get here for some way of making a living, you have a solemn obligation as Americans to prepare yourself for the future in such a way that by your wisdom and good sense our country will be stronger and freer because of the contribution, however small, that you will make in the years ahead.

You students have been granted the opportunity of securing the benefits of higher education in a year when our colleges have turned away more worthy applicants for admission than ever before. As a result you have the responsibility to live up to the trust which has been placed in you and to be worthy of your selection.

I am certain that you will take advantage of all the opportunities that the devotion of a loyal faculty and the splendid traditions of our college offer you. Mount St. Mary's is proud of the inspiring record of its graduates. We expect you not only to continue the tradition but to add luster to our reputation.

John L. Shenden

President

MY DEAR Students, Saint Joseph College Administration and Faculty extend a sincere and devoted welcome to you as you return, or make your initial trip to our Valley. We are here for the welfare of our girls, and no student body on any campus in any part of the world is more esteemed and cherished than are you whom we welcome today.

Because we have your needs and desires uppermost in our minds, we should like to remind you today that your only reason for being at Saint Joseph College is that you may grow—that spiritually, intellectually, socially and physically you may become a holier member of the Church, a stronger citizen of your country, and a worthier member of the family to which you will return.

Saint Joseph's offers all the opportunities you need to achieve this growth. All about you is the atmosphere created by that American mother, scholar, and religious whom you know as Mother Seton. Her ideals, aspirations, and achievements are your heritage. Make good use of them as you live out your citizenship in the Valley of Emmitsburg. Place God first in your daily life, and you will learn to evaluate success and happiness in the only terms that matter.

From this first moment consider seriously your intellectual growth. Give it the place of importance that it deserves, if you are effectively to realize your obligations to yourself, to your family, to your country, and to your God. The cultured, intellectual Catholic woman is the woman who is capable of living that full, happy life of which you dream. Saint Joseph's has not overlooked careful plans for your social life, and all of you with great ease will participate in that phase of your college life, but let it not interfere with the primary reason for your coming to college — to come closer to God by means of intellectual development.

We, Administration and Faculty, are part of your life now. Feel free to ask our help at any time, in any way. Our greatest happiness lies in stimulating this growth of which we have been speaking.

Mt. St. Mary's Begins 149th Academic Year With Capacity Enrollment Of 600 Students; Freshman Enrollment Heavy As Class Starts

Mount St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, second oldest Catholic College in the United States began its 149th academic year Thursday morning, September 13, with a capacity enrollment of approximately 600 students, including 210 freshmen. The formal opening began with a solemn mass of the Holy Ghost in the College Chapel celebrated by Rt. Rev. Msgr. John L. Sheridan, president of the college. Classes began after the chapel services.

Freshmen orientation began at Mount St. Mary's for 200 incoming students on Monday, September 10. Following registration the freshmen underwent a battery of tests and heard talks from various members of the faculty and administration. Participating officers were Rt. Rev. Msgr. John L. Sheridan, Rt. Rev. Msgr. William F. Culhane, vice president; Rev. Francis P. Kearney, dean of studies; Rev. William D. McGonigle, dean of men; Rev. Robert Kline, chaplain; Rev. Joseph B. Included in the freshman class were 20 veterans.

The freshman figures are slightly under last year's record enrollment of 247 students.

Saint Joseph College Begins 147th Year On Sept. 14 With 316 Students, Largest In Its History; Rosary Hall Ready For Occupancy

With an enrollment of 316 students, the largest in its history, Saint Joseph College, Emmitsburg, began its 147th academic year on Sept. 14 at 8 a.m. with the celebration of the traditional Mass of the Holy Ghost. Celebrant was Rev. Hugh F. O'Donnell, C.M., college chaplain, and the entire student body and faculty were in attendance.

Included in the record enrollment at Saint Joseph's were 68 freshmen, four entering transfers, and 71 postulants or members of the community of the Daughters of Charity who are pursuing courses at various college levels.

Two new buildings, one Rosary Hall, a $600,000 dormitory building, already in use, and another, a still-incomplete recreation hall, marked the opening of the school. Rosary Hall, a sophomore-junior residence, is scheduled for dedication on Oct. 7.

Recreation Hall

The recreation hall is also scheduled for completion by Oct. 7. It is the gift of the alumnae and cost $150,000. It will replace the former Green Room and Pines at the College and will provide dancing space for 175 couples. The most striking feature of the new recreation hall is its west wall which is constructed of glass from floor to ceiling.

New faculty members were also announced for the opening of the new school year by Sister Rosemary, Ed.D., dean of studies. Three new appointments have been made in the Home Economics department: Sister Madeleine Wheeler, who joined the faculty last year as a lecturer, becomes a full-time instructor teaching color and design, interior decoration, and foods chemistry. A graduate of St. Joseph's, Sister Madeleine is a candidate for the M.A. at Simmons College, Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Paul Claypool, a graduate of the University of Maryland, will teach elementary nutrition. Mrs. Ruth M. Dillon, a graduate of Margaret Morrison College of Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, Pa., will teach elementary clothing. Both have had experience in secondary education.

Other Faculty

Other faculty additions include Miss Cecelia Gorman, a St. Joseph graduate, who will teach secretarial training and assist in physical education; Dr. Gilbert Oddo, lecturer in economics, who received his A.B. from Union College and his M.A. and Ph.D. from Georgetown University; Mrs. Thomas Mulholland, who will serve as a house-mother and supervisor of social activities. Additional members of the faculty of the Sisters' Division are Rev. Thomas J. Barrett and Sister Margaret Hughes.

Miss Cecelia Gorman returns to her Alma Mater as an instructor in secretarial science and an assistant in the physical education program.

Three courses in the Social Studies department are to be added this year. In the first semester, Europe in the 19th Century; 2nd semester, Europe in the 20th Century and the American Social System. Creative writing will be offered to the upper divisions of the English department.

Freshman Class

Division of the freshman class shows New Jersey first with 14 students: Catherine Cappock, Red Bank; Anne Comeau, Clark; Lou Ellen Cooper, Union; Sue Ann Corcoran, Princeton; Mary Louise Crawford and Frances Cannon, both of Trenton; Geraldine Gut, Clifton; Ann McCabe, Bogota; Marilyn Mulder, Lyndhurst; Elizabeth Nelson, Elizabeth; Regina Schmitt, Cranford; Elizabeth Thill, Camden; Martha Ann Spurlock, Allentown, and Ann Williams, West Orange.

New York is represented by 12 freshmen: Bernadine Bianchi, Rochester; Elizabeth Daly, Baldwin; Marion Fries, Belle Harbor; Nancy Anne Gill, Long Beach; Vicki Gomez, Elmhurst; Carol Ann Gorman, Corning; Patricia Haggerty, Irvington-on-Hudson; Monica Horak, Syracuse; Mary Ann Molinari, Oneonta; Mary Alice Langley and Linda Ryan, both from Troy, and Regina Ryan from Brooklyn.

Maryland has 11 representatives, four of whom are from Baltimore. The Baltimoreans are Lois Davis, Gloria Defina, Mary Maas, and Elizabeth Phelan. Other Free Staters are Elizabeth Addison, Accokeek; Susan Anderson, Glen Arms; Mary Edith Bailey, Thurmont; Mary Frances Baril, Bethesda; Regina Smith, Aberdeen; Kathryn White, Silver Spring, and Rose Williams, Rockville.

Pennsylvania Students

Pennsylvania will send 10 students: Ruth Conti and Mary Elizabeth Keenan both of Bethlehem; Katherine O'Donnell, Allentown; Sally Grabe, Camp Hill; Arlene Gallagher, Easton; Mary Charlotte Duffy and Mary Jane Rohrbach, Philadelphia; Victoria Brenner, Gettysburg; Patricia Donohoe, Scranton, and Margaret Mary Philbin, Coopersburg.

From the District of Columbia are Margot Smith, Alice Meeker, Mary Jane Hicks, Paula Petso and Maureen Connery.

From Virginia are Theresa Porter, Falmouth; Judith Doering, Staunton; Mary Sue Butler, Harrisonburg, and Mary Ann Mosha and Maxine Hansen, Richmond.

Barbara West, Milton, and Ann McQuade, Wellesley, will represent Massachusetts in the incoming freshman class.

Other states are represented by Katherine Saunders, Augusta, Ga.; Helen Carroll, Highland Park, Ill.; and Patricia Collins, Greensboro, N. C.

Puerto Rico will have four representatives in the class of 1960: Myrta Acuna from Santurce; Julieta Martino and Matilde Ramos, both graduates of St. Rose, Bayamon; and Sara Rodriguez, Mayaguez. Cuba will have two freshmen, Elena Calmet and Hortensia Gomez, both from Havana.

ROSARY HALL IS FASHIONABLE NEW RESIDENCE

Modernity, convenience, beauty keynote the newly-completed $600,000 dormitory at St. Joseph College, to be dedicated on October 7. A sophomore-junior residential "catch" for this year, Rosary Hall reaches the height of fashionable collegiate living with its silver oak furniture and woodwork and large picture windows.

The building comprises three wings—a north, south and a shorter west wing. Both north and south wings of each of the three floors feature shower rooms with walk-in showers, bathtubs and automatic hand driers. Two telephone booths, an incinerator and a laundry chute, utility and linen closets, plus a laundry room with its automatic washer and drier complete the appliances on each floor.

In the 14' x 15' double rooms, the key word is attractive utility. A sink, mirrored medicine cabinet, and two tall closets are set back in the walls. For daytime light and a spacious view, the architect has placed the combination desk-drawers on either side of a large picture window. Above each desk is a stationary bulletin board, a fluorescent lamp and a two-partitioned bookshelf. For pennants, pictures, and odds and ends, several rows of molding surround the wall at eye-level.

Director's Suite

A suite of rooms on each floor, complete with bedroom, private bath and counselling room, has been provided for the residence directors.

In addition to the new Rosary Hall, four other areas have the "New Look" on campus. DuBois Hall, now painted pale green and floored with coral and charcoal asphalt tile, is equipped with complete cafeteria service. Stainless steel serving units gleam in the north-west end of the dining room, a few steps from the entrance.

Connected with Rosary Hall by a covered walk is the new Student Center. A $150,000 gift of the alumnae, the center is scheduled for completion by late September. It will replace the Green Room and former Pines and will provide dancing space for 175 couples.

The relocated Book Store opened September 10 in the ground floor of Vincent. Larger floor space, more items, and "self service" are the main features of the shop.

Post Office has undergone changes too in the form of 140 more boxes and a "Dutch door" with shelf which will make package distribution easier.

HONOR SOCIETY SPONSORS NAT'L POSTER CONTEST

A record-breaking 104 entries were represented in the second annual poster contest sponsored by the Omega Chapter of Pi Delta Phi, National French Honor Society at St. Joseph College. Every state in the Union, as well as numerous foreign countries, entered the contest whose rules require that each student entrant compose an original slogan in French, expressing some phase of France's history, literature or culture and design a poster conveying the meaning of the slogan.

First prize was awarded Carol Rohn, Mt. Lebanon High School, Pittsburgh, Pa. Other winners were Carroll Kehne, Jr., Frederick High School, Frederick, Md.; Pat Mansfield, Ramona Convent High School, Alhambra, Calif.; Francine Carr, Boise Senior High School, Boise, Idaho; Pat Stumpf, Academy of the Assumption, Philadelphia.

*Judges for the 1956 contest were Sidney D. Braun, Ph.D., Yeshiva University; Jacques Hadre, Ph.D., University of North Carolina; Denis R. Janisse, Ph.D., University of De-

Course Selection Is Based On Examination

All freshman students at Mount St. Mary's College electing either the science or the business administration curricula were required to successfully pass aptitude examination in the fields of their choice. Tests were required regardless of high school records or results of College Entrance Board tests.

Experience has shown at Mount St. Mary's that highest mortality in freshman year was in these two fields and that success was not necessarily reflected by excellence in high school work. In an effort to forestall such failures, the dean's committee of the college decided to administer the tests to the incoming class and then study the correlation between high school records, test grades, and course success.

If the testing proves of value the program will be continued in the science and business fields and extended to other curricula.

Outstanding among the 15 national prizes awarded by the society was a bronze medal of the Chateau de Versailles from the New York Ambassade de France and a rich collection of art folios.

Miss M. Lucie Fitzpatrick, assistant professor of romance languages at St. Joseph's, is a graduate of Boston University. She received her M.A. in both French and Spanish from Middlebury College, Vt.

Geraldine Mulson directs the physical education program at St. Joseph's.

FIVE DIVISIONS ARE LISTED FOR SJC CURRICULUM

Academic administration at St. Joseph College is controlled by division chairmen as well as by department heads in order to insure proper correlation of materials throughout the various curricula.

These divisions are as follows: Division of Religion and Philosophy; Rev. Hugh F. O'Donnell, C.M., assistant professor in Religion and Philosophy; B.A. St. Joseph's College, Princeton, N. J.; St. Vincent's Seminary, Fordham University.

READING CLINIC AIDS STUDENTS IMPROVE WORK

Some 150 students every year better their class work at the Mount partly because they have the intelligence and initiative to recognize—and do something about—their faulty reading habits. Following the recommendation of the Guidance Office for the need of assistance, they go for further diagnosis and remedial instruction to a specialist, Rev. Dr. Joseph B. Tremonti, C.S.V., Director of Guidance and the Developmental Reading Program. His therapy demands real effort and a willingness to dig hard for constant improvement and when his patients cooperate parents appreciate the scholastic improvement that results. He has helped near-failing students remain in school and good students become outstanding.

But why this reading program? Can't students eligible for admission to the second oldest Catholic College in the United States READ?

Yes, they can read, but many students come to the Mount and to other colleges and universities all over the world with outstanding potential that needs development through special means. Countless students with fine minds come to college unfortunately possessing poor reading habits which date back to those years when they were learning to read and which have never been remedied prior to entering college. The reading of these students, while passable at the high school level, falls short of the reading requirements of college studies.

Rev. Joseph B. Tremonti, director of guidance.

Inadequate Vocabulary
Dr. Tremonti reports that closely associated with poor reading skill is inadequate vocabulary and improper study methods. The Mount's developmental and corrective reading program is begun by a thorough analysis of study habits and followed through with recommendations for improvement. Two diagnostic reading tests are administered early in the program to each student to determine his speed and comprehension. Similar tests are then administered throughout the course and conferences with groups and individual students are conducted when necessary.

Some of the typical traits observed in the reading clinic include students who read words for words' sake. They plod, "plow under each

Counseling Serves Students Who Face Difficult Hurdles

By Rev. Joseph B. Tremonti, C.S.V., B.Ed.D.

Failing isn't so easy any more at Mount Saint Mary's College for students who really want to succeed. The college has not replaced its departmental assignments with snap courses, but it is helping the student to clear most of the hurdles that handicap his pursuit of learning.

Failure is still pretty inevitable for anyone who sets his mind to it or against anything else. Yet any Mount man who wants to succeed in his studies will find special facilities at his disposal.

In recent years the Mount has evolved a thorough program of freshmen orientation. The newcomer, even before he begins his studies, is well indoctrinated in the essentials of Mount life and spirit; the what and why of its traditions, customs, discipline and atmosphere. This program includes a battery of tests which enables the administration to put students in classes where he is academically rather than where he should be.

Booklet Distributed
A booklet entitled "How To Succeed In College" is distributed to all new students. This handbook facilitates their adjustment and consists of materials explaining the scope and function of the guidance program and the means by which they can stay in college. Presented clearly and concisely are suggestions for every kind of problem college students are likely to meet, such as causes and remedies for academic failure, what a student should expect to get out of college, how to study from the time of taking of class notes to preparation for examinations.

The transition from high school to college courses and the greater work demanded may easily discourage students. The lure of too many extra-curricular aspects of college life may distract him. Or, most commonly, he does not know how to make the most of his time and talents; he simply cannot buckle down.

To shepherd the student safely past such intellectual fog, social byroads and mental blocks, the Mount in the fall of 1952 established, under the vice president, Msgr. William F. Culhane, a guidance department. And for this task of diagnosing, treating and remedying academic and other ills, it chose Rev. Dr. Joseph B. Tremonti, C.S.V., as director of guidance. He is assisted by a group of experienced and competent counselors.

To help students solve their problems and plan their program of education and lifework more intelligently, the students are given information about the various curricula including types of subjects or courses offered and requisites for them; information about the world of work, particularly about the special areas of specific jobs in which they have an interest; and other information calculated to assist them in handling their own plans and problems.

Each student is assigned to an experienced and competent counselor. There are specific times they are to see him, but he is available for conferences in all emergencies. He helps them interpret their own abilities, interests, and aptitudes as revealed by standardized measurements, assists in choosing a course of study which will best prepare them for their chosen profession, and helps them recognize problems and formulate a plan best suited to counteract them.

17 MEN SERVED MT. ST. MARY'S AS PRESIDENT

Over the 149 years of its existence Mount St. Mary's has had 17 duly elected presidents. In addition there have been several acting presidents, who served during a vacancy caused by death or resignation but were not formally elected to the office by the College Council.

Charles P. Grannan was acting president from October, 1883 to September, 1884. Bishop Allen from September, 1884 to June, 1885, and Monsignor Sheridan from 1886 until 1937. Fr. Grannan's tenure was due to the fact that William Byrne, then president, was in Boston during the period, while Bishop Allen seems to have become acting president when Byrne insisted that the Council accept his resignation.

Of the Mountaineer presidents, four later became bishops: Dubois in New York, Purcell in Cincinnati, Watterson in Columbus and Allen in Mobile.

Presidential Roster
The presidential roster follows:
1. John Dubois, 1886-1826
2. Michael DeBurgio Egan, 1826-1828
3. John McGerry, 1828-1829
4. John B. Purcell, 1829-1833
5. Francis P. Jamison, 1833-1834
6. Thomas R. Butler, 1834-1838
7. John McCaffrey, 1838-1872
8. John McCloskey, 1872-1877
9. John A. Watterson, 1877-1880
10. John McCloskey, 1880
11. William J. Hill, 1880-1881
12. William Byrne, 1881-1885
13. Edward P. Allen, 1885-1897
14. William L. O'Hara, 1897-1905
15. Dennis J. Flynn, 1905-1911

17. John L. Sheridan, 1937

word," pronounce each word silently; are unable to pick out main ideas from subordinate description and details; have difficulty in defining simple, perhaps unfamiliar, words as they are used in context. They fail to pre-read by first skimming over the material to be read and to vary the reading rate according to the nature of the material and the purpose for reading it. These and many other not so obvious reading problems make reading a difficult, discouraging and sometimes a fearful chore for many students. In a few cases, defective eyesight played an obvious part in the reading experience of the students.

The reading program also attempts to develop increased concentration. There is a substantial increase in both rate of reading and comprehension. Specifically, the rise in reading speed alone is from 193 words per minute at the beginning of the program to 374 words at the end for the group average with only twenty hours of instruction. An improvement of 93% in speed and 35% in comprehension was noted for this past year.

The developmental reading program originated in the Department of Guidance five years ago. In the past four years more than 600 students participated in the program, including many students of high scholastic ability.

Guidance Booklet Is Copyrighted

Under the direction of Rev. Dr. Joseph B. Tremonti, S.S.V., head of the guidance department, a Freshman booklet copyrighted by Fr. Tremonti will be distributed to all incoming students.

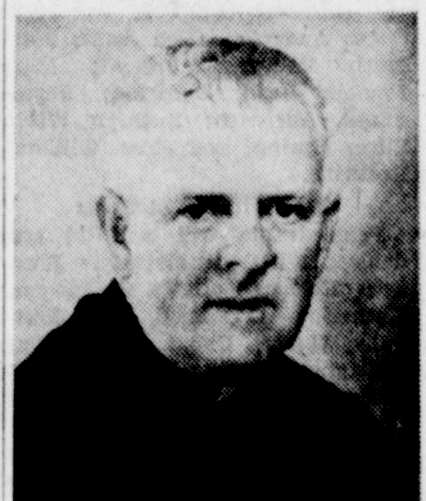

By mean of the handbook Fr. Tremonti hopes to enable students to adjust more easily and quickly to college life by avoiding difficulties at the outset. The handbook covers such topics as the causes of and remedies for academic failure, how to study, how to budget time, preparation of schedules, note-taking, outlining, reviewing, improvement of reading ability and preparation for examinations.

Prep School Closed At Mount In 1936

The prep school department of Mount St. Mary's College was closed at the end of the 1935-36 school year. Beginning with the September 1934 term the first and second years of the prep were abandoned. Junior year was dropped in June 1935. The high school buildings were then converted to use for administration offices of the Col-

MSM College Is Directed By 14 Priests

The administration of Mount St. Mary's College is unique among American Catholic educational institutions. The proprietors of the institution are a group of secular priests formed into a corporative group in 1830 and called "The President and Council of Mount St.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. William F. Culhane, vice president of Mount St. Mary's.

Mary's College." The fact that the priests are from many different dioceses adds to the unusual situation.

Under the Most Rev. Francis P. Keough, Archbishop of Baltimore, who is ex-officio president of the Council, the 14-man group is responsible for all the administrative activities of the College.

Until 1882 when the College, which had suffered financial distress as a result of the Civil War, was declared out of receivership, the president of the College was also the president of the corporation. At this time it was decided to separate the two offices and the Archbishop of Baltimore from this time on became President ex-officio of the Council.

Meet Monthly
New members are added to the Council by vote of the membership and in that way the organization perpetuates itself. All policies of the college are discussed at regular Council meetings which are held monthly. Special meetings are called periodically to determine pressing matters.

Notes Of Old Schooldays At Mt. St. Mary's Are Interesting

As Mount St. Mary's approaches the 150th anniversary of its founding in 1808 by Fr. John DuBois, it is interesting to sift through some of the materials contained in the archives of the college. The following items are gleaned from the mass of material on record for the school days of 1831 and 1856.

Prefects at the Mountain 125 years ago were John McCloskey, later to become the first American Cardinal, and John McCaffrey, who was to become the seventh president of the college. McCaffrey three times refused elevation to the episcopal dignity.

1856
William Elder, a descendant of one of the College's first benefactors, and later archbishop of Cincinnati, began his college career.

Ordained in Gettysburg on Oct. 1, 1831, were Thomas R. Butler, a future Mount president, and F. X. Gartland, later bishop of Savannah, Ga.

At commencement exercises in 1831, the first bachelor's degree was granted under the new charter with Francis Higgins, Norfolk, Va., getting the degree. Higgins later became a physician, completing his medical work in France.

In March 1831 a young sub-deacon, M. M. Pelissier, who was dying, became the first priest ordained in the Old Church on the Hill when his ordination was advanced by the archbishop.

Roger B. Taney, later chief justice of the supreme court, urged the college authorities to seek a new charter from the Maryland legislature because of an unusual provision.

The Baltimore stage company wrote school authorities asking them to have the boys walk the two miles to Emmitsburg as the roads to College were very rough and extremely dangerous for vehicles to traverse before daylight. The coaches used to come in the evening before in order to get an early start next day.

A mother wrote saying, "Willie's nose has something the matter with it that makes it grow crooked. Please make his keep pushing it to make it straight."

Rumors were rife that President McCaffrey would be appointed bishop of Charleston.

McCaffrey Hall was hastily completed with two stories so that efforts might be made to build a memorial chapel to Brute and Dubois. Authorization was granted by the Archbishop March 6, 1856. The church was begun on an elaborate plan submitted by Patrick Kelley, designer of the cathedrals of Boston, Hartford, Albany, and Pittsburgh. The construction was interrupted because of the Civil War and the foundation stood deteriorating until 1903 when some of the stones were used in Flynn Hall. There were 210 students at the Mount. On the faculty were two future bishops, William McCloskey and William Elder. In this year Elder was named bishop of Natchez.

Honors at commencement were given among others to Michael A. Corrigan, later archbishop of New York.

Attending the college in 1856-57 were Edward D. White, later Chief Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, and James McSherry, later Chief Justice of the Maryland Supreme Court.

Dr. Francis Silas Chatard, '53 (11-35), afterwards bishop of Indianapolis, visited the Mount to make a retreat to decide whether he should study for the priesthood.

CAMPUS GROUPS HELP FRESHMEN AT ST. JOSEPH

As is true of most campuses, organizations on the St. Joseph College campus are generally identified by initials rather than by the whole name of the organization. The complete list of campus groups open to SJCiennes follows:

C of M—Children of Mary, the foremost campus organization under which all clubs have been integrated. The head and heart of campus activity. Requirements for joining: love of Mary and desire to imitate her virtues. New freshmen receive green ribbon of aspirants and later during the year, the blue ribbon, symbol of a full-fledged Child of Mary.

CGA—Cooperative Government Association, of which every student is a member. Vincit qui se vincit! The College's motto is CGA's guide. Conquest of self and the upholding of SJC's high standards are the student government aims.

Athletic Association
VAA—Valley Athletic Association claims every student for its member.

ship. Nine sports activities are promoted by this group in the rigid race for the Mother Seton Trophy.

BCU—Blessed Clet Mission Unit for the mission-field. Requirements: love and sacrifice.

MACA—Marillac Association of Catholic Action, the campus social service organization. Requirements: love to see others happy. Members strive to aid the aged, infirm, and the lonely by visits, food baskets, and cheery mail.

International Relations
IRC—International Relations Club. Requirement: interest in current events of world-wide importance.

NFCCS—National Federation of Catholic College Students. Purpose: to keep SJCiennes in close contact with other Catholic colleges.

Not all club names have been shortened to initials. Others are Melpothallians, the dramatic club, for those interested in grease-paint and footlights. Combination of work and fun is provided by One-Act

Jacqueline Smith, Waldorf, Md., president of the Valley Athletic Association and associate editor of the college yearbook, Allegra.

Play contest and major production.

Glee Club
For singers there is the Glee Club where one can entertain others and have a good time, too. Christmas carolling, the Spring Concert, and impromptu serenades make up the year's activities.

Pi Delta Phi, for those who are extra-specialty good in French, the National French Honor Society. Membership by invitation only. Sponsors annual French day.

Liturgical Club, only three years old, prepares members for Christian motherhood by teaching them through various club activities to adapt the liturgy to daily home life.

Home Economics Club for those whose interests lie in this field. Sponsors annual Christmas party for area children.

Allegra, the happy girl, the true SJCienne, is the ideal behind the annual yearbook of the same name. Valley Echo, resounding the news of the campus, is published monthly by students of the journalism department.

Spanish Government Honors Miss Collins

Miss Ellen Collins, a 1939 graduate of St. Joseph College, was awarded the Ribbon and Cross of Isabella the Catholic, one of Spain's highest decorations, last April. She received the decoration from Spain's Foreign Minister Don Alberto Martin Artajo during a ceremony at the Spanish Embassy in Washington, D. C.

Awarded the Spanish Cross for her work in promoting closer ties between Spain and the United States, Miss Collins was the first to arrange exchange scholarships between Spanish and American students. In 1949 she returned from Spain with 32 scholarship students for whom she had made exchange arrangements and had contributed money for their incidental expenses while in the United States.

Her associations with Latin-American classmates at Saint Joseph's first gained her an interest in Spanish culture. Embarking on a postgraduate study program which led her to Peru and Mexico City, Miss Collins was later assigned to the American Embassy in Quito.

WILL DEDICATE NEW RESIDENCE ON OCTOBER 7

Dedication of the recently constructed residence building as Rosary Hall will highlight the traditional Valley Home Weekend activities, scheduled this year for October 5 to 7. The 1956 Weekend promises a climactic ending to parents' visit on campus with the laying of the dormitory cornerstone and blessing of the alumnae-donated Student Center on October 7, Feast of the Most Holy Rosary, at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Treasured past activities of Valley Home Weekend remain an integral part of the approaching Weekend. Investiture of freshmen in the academic cap and gown on Friday evening symbolizes their entrance into, and acceptance of, academic life. Sunday afternoon, sophomore students mark dedication to their profession with capping exercises in the College Chapel.

Socials Cram Saturday
Harvest Tea on Saturday afternoon brings the chance for parents to meet and chat with faculty and administration members in the informal atmosphere of the Log Cabin.

Social high point of the Weekend arrives with Saturday night's Father-Daughter Dance. Toward the end of the evening, men's deep voices and girls' lilting ones mingle in one of the dance's cherished customs—the serenade by seniors and their fathers.

Special Mass for students and their parents on Sunday morning at 9:00 o'clock is followed by the Valley Home Weekend Brunch in the DuBois Hall.

school, as such, were not started until 1924 when the two courses of study were added to the curriculum to meet legislation requiring students to have prescribed courses before beginning their postgraduate work.

Prior to that time the students went on to complete their law or took the regular courses and then medical work in various universities.

23 Campus Organizations Offer Activities For Varied Tastes Of Mountaineer Students

Twenty-three campus organizations, some academic, some merely social, enable Mountaineer students to find some activities through the year to keep themselves pleasantly engaged.

The Student Council, composed of elected representatives from each class, is the governing body of the College. All student problems are handled by the Council which acts as a liaison between students and administration.

The Sock and Buskin Society is the dramatic society of Mount St. Mary's. Students interested in acting and stagecraft display their talents in four productions a year.

Business Club
The Business Club was organized in 1955 to promote better understanding in the student of the philosophy and technique of industry and to develop in the student the highest sense of business ethics.

The Athletic Association, composed of delegates elected from each class, directs the extensive intramural program at the college under the guidance of the athletic department. The program consists of touch football, volleyball, basketball, softball, tennis, handball and others. In team sports participation is on hall basis. The athletic association supervises equipment, rules, standings, and awards trophies.

The Bishop Sheen Mission Unit is a charter member of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade, with its principal purpose to promote knowledge of the missionary work of the Catholic Church through prayer, study, and sacrifice. Papal approval was given to the crusade in 1925 by Pope Pius XI.

Forensic Council
The Forensic Council represents the college in the field of inter-collegiate debating. The Club is a member of the Cardinal Gibbons Debating League consisting of colleges from Maryland and the District of Columbia. Debaters move outside the league to argue with teams from Penn, Princeton, Fordham, and elsewhere. They also take part in WMAR's TV debates.

The Glee Club offers an opportunity for those with vocal ability to sing in live concerts on the campus and elsewhere. Frequently throughout the year the choraleers make appearances on TV. Highlights of the program are the Christmas concert and the Spring Festival.

The International Relations Club aims at stimulating interest in national and international affairs through discussion and panel groups. Speakers address the group from time to time throughout the year.

Monogram Club
The Monogram Club consists of varsity lettermen in the various sports of the intercollegiate program. Members help the athletic association in the direction of intramural sports and aid the athletic department with ushering and other jobs during the year.

The Monsignor Tierney Honor Society is a scholastic society open to those whose general average is above 85 per cent. Members are elected provisionally at the end of their junior year. Those who maintain the average throughout the senior year are graduated with "Honors" and receive the key of the Society. This is the highest honor available to a Mountaineer student.

Knights Of Columbus
The Knights of Columbus Council on the Mount St. Mary's campus is unique in that it is the only Council of the organization whose membership is restricted to collegians and seminarians.

The College band aims at giving students with a musical bent an opportunity to express themselves in both serious and popular fashion. The band plays several concerts through the year and has won popular renown for its progress at athletic events.

The Dante and Shamrock Clubs are open respectively to students of Italian and Irish descent. Both attempt to familiarize members with national history's culture. In addition they are active socially, and the Shamrock Club sponsors the annual field day open to all students in the college.

Veterans Club
The Veterans Club attempts to promote the assimilation of returning veterans into normal college, community, and domestic relations. It promotes fellowship and understanding among members and offers a program of social activities.

The Science Club offers students a way of gaining a more appreciative understanding of the pure sciences by creating a more active interest in the application of science. It aims also at aiding students to integrate material so that they may be better able to apply their knowledge correctly.

The Pridwin is the Mount St. Mary's Yearbook, named after the shield of King Arthur on which is inscribed the figure of the Blessed Virgin. It is the verbal and pictorial repository of student memories and is staffed largely by seniors and juniors.

Mountain Echo
The Mountain Echo is the official campus publication of Mount St. Mary's devoted to the interests of the college, its student body and alumni. It is published monthly and staffed by students from all classes.

The St. John's Berchman's Society consists of those students who assist at religious functions in the College Chapel.

The National Federation of Catholic College Students unites the student bodies of more than 200 Catholic colleges across the country. The Federation's main function is to facilitate and co-ordinate work of the various extra-curricular groups on individual college campuses, and to represent the opinion of the American Catholic College student in those areas of business, political, and social life affecting student interest.

Other organizations such as the Metropolitan and Tri-state Clubs group students according to their home towns and generally carry on social events during vacations.

The chess club provides an education in chess to those students who are interested in instruction either on an elementary or advanced level. Matches are arranged with neighboring colleges and clubs to provide competition for the more proficient, and intramural competition is held for all members.

CAMPUS LEADERS OFFER STUDENTS WIDE ACTIVITY

Among the first SJClennes new freshmen meet upon arrival in the Valley are Therese Klesner, Eleanor Gallagher, Eileen Regan, Rae Ann O'Neill, and Margaret McKay. These seniors hold the highest offices on the Saint Joseph campus. With the exception of Miss McKay, senior class president, all were elected to their respective offices by the entire student body.

Therese Klesner, as president of the Children of Mary, will head the campus and hold the highest student office in the college for the coming year. She becomes ex officio a member of all college clubs.

Therese, a social science major, joined the Class of '57 last year. She hails from Sierra Vista Farm, Stephens City, Va.

Fine Artist
Terry is a fine artist. She displayed her talents at the portrait booth of last year's Charity Fair and as chairman of Father O'Donnell's poster contest. In addition, she won second place in the Emmitsburg Bicentennial Cachet Contest.

Eileen Regan as vice president of CGA will back up Eleanor Gallagher. As chairman of the social committee, it will be her duty to coordinate the year's social life with MSM.

From New York City, this secretarial science major has had a full three years of office-holding. Eileen was treasurer of her class freshman year, president, sophomore and junior years, and secretary of the Dramatic club, junior year. Eileen also has played varsity basketball for three years and has taken an active part in all intramural sports.

Dramatic Ability
She has displayed her dramatic ability in two major productions and has had a major part in all three one-act plays her class has presented.

Margaret Ann McKay will lead the senior class this year as their president. Her office makes her a member of the CGA Executive Board.

A Science major from Hopewell, Va., she served as vice president of her junior class, treasurer of Dramatic club, vice president of Liturgy club, and NPCCS junior delegate, all in one year, last year. Though rarely seen on stage, she has participated actively in Dramatic club, especially on make-up crews.

Active Athlete
She also played varsity basketball during her sophomore and junior years and was manager of the intramural basketball tournament for those two years.

Eleanor Gallagher is new president of the Cooperative Government Association. She is liaison between administration and student body. It is her job to present the desires of the administration to the students and transmit the students' wishes to the proper authorities.

Office-holding and responsibility are not new to Eleanor. In the past, this English major served as president of her class and, during her junior year, served as treasurer of CGA and secretary of BCU.

Dean's List
Eleanor, a resident of Wilmington, Del., is also a member of the VALLEY ECHO staff and a regular Dean's List student. Her likes include music from semi-classical to jazz.

Rae Ann O'Neill occupies the chair of secretary of the Cooperative Government Association. A secretarial science major, she is a resident of Hightstown, N. J. Last year, she served as secretary of the Valley Athletic Association. She has been an active member of the drama club, participating in two One-Act play contests and has given her services to the BCU board for three years.

Also serving on the Orientation Program this year will be the presidents of all campus organizations, editors of VALLEY ECHO and ALLEGRA, the yearbook, and chairman of the Students' Sesquicentennial Committee.

MAYOR TO LEAD FIGHT AGAINST INTEGRATION

By GEORGE HACKETT
CLAY, Ky. (AP)—Mayor Herman Z. Clark, outspoken integration foe, said Thursday he personally will lead the community's campaign to rid the Clay school of its only two Negro students.

"I'll not rest until James and Teresa Gordon return to a school where they belong," Clark said in an interview.

"We will follow a policy of passive resistance by keeping our children out of school until the Gordons leave."

The movement started Wednesday when all white children in the school (enrollment 590) walked out after the Gordon children entered classes under protection of 500 National Guardsmen and 60 state troopers. The escort slipped into the community before dawn under the command of Adj. Gen. J. J. B. Williams.

One teacher, Minvil Clark, said he would not return even though "I was threatened with the loss of my teaching certificate by the State Board of Education."

Clark, a Baptist minister here, said he and the school's 11 other teachers were told the board could revoke their certificates if they left school before their working day ended.

The minister repeated his promise later in the day to 200 Clay residents who met at Dixon, the county seat, to urge the Webster County Board of Education to honor a petition suggesting all teachers stay out of classes until the Negroes left.

School Supt. Wilbur Collins told the gathering the board would have to follow the law and permit the Negroes to remain.

All was quiet at Sturgis, 11 miles away, where seven Negroes were expected to enter the high school for the fourth consecutive day, day. Approximately 200 guardsmen are assigned to the school.

Gen. Williams said the troops at Clay and Sturgis will not be removed until the situation is resolved "no matter how long or short it may be."

2 NATIONS ARE TOLD TO STOP BORDER FIGHTS

JERUSALEM (AP)—Maj. Gen. Edson Burns, U.N. truce chief, has called on both Jordan and Israel to put an end to the series of border incidents that has exploded in the middle of the worsening Suez crisis.

Jordan military sources charged Wednesday that 1,000 Israelis in a fleet of trucks and armored cars blew up a fortified police post and killed 20 Jordanians during a two-hour battle.

This attack, one of the most serious along the Jordan-Israeli border in months, was only three miles from where the Israelis claimed six of their soldiers were killed by a Jordan patrol Monday.

The raid was followed by an Israeli report Wednesday night that two Israeli guardsmen were killed by infiltrators from Jordan on the road between the Dead Sea and Red Sea. Another guardman was missing.

Gen. Burns appealed to both sides to end the "tragic series of events." In a communique he declared that the raid appeared to be an act of retaliation such as has been repeatedly condemned by the Security Council.

HOLD CHEMIST IN POISONING OF A TEACHER

NEW YORK (AP)—A 34-year-old chemist is being held as a material witness in the mysterious death of a pretty schoolteacher who apparently died of cyanide poisoning.

A judge Wednesday ordered Hugo Seinfeld held in $25,000 bail after the finding of the body of 25-year-old Avis Gray in a Riverside Drive hotel room.

The girl, fully clothed, lay sprawled on a bed. On the floor lay an empty champagne goblet. Champagne and other goblets lay on a table nearby.

Seinfeld, an Israeli citizen and a doctor of chemistry, told police of arranging a hotel rendezvous as a "farewell date" in their romance.

Taught in Istanbul
Seinfeld met Miss Gray in Istanbul, Turkey, where she taught English for two years at the American College for Girls.

The couple became "engaged," then the girl broke it off when she learned Seinfeld had a wife and three children living in Israel—according to the young woman's mother, Dr. Sarah Gray, a dental clinic supervisor for the city department of health.

Seinfeld said he recently obtained a divorce and wanted to marry Miss Gray. For some undisclosed reason, he said, she turned him down.

The couple met at the hotel room Tuesday. A discussion of their dilemma got them nowhere that night, Seinfeld said, and he poured crystals of sodium cyanide into a glass of water.

Penned Suicide Note
At Miss Gray's urging, he said, he took a walk to "think it over." When he returned about half an hour later, Miss Gray was dead, he said.

Determined to take his own life, he said, he penned a "suicide" letter to a brother-in-law, then put cyanide into a glass of champagne. He couldn't drink it. He tried to swallow the crystals from a piece of paper. He lost his nerve.

Announce New PO Identification Signs

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Post Office Department announced today new identification signs will be placed at some 45,000 post offices and postal stations starting the first week in October.

Postmaster General Summerfield said the red, white and blue signs are "an important improvement at a slight cost," making it easier for patrons to identify postal service facilities in growing areas, resorts, and shopping centers having new postal contract stations in their stores.

from Russian Premier Nikolai Bulganin Wednesday about the Suez Canal.

There was no amplification of this announcement and no hint of the content of the message.

The newspaper Paris-Press said the message may have been a "plea for moderation" and may have been sent to other chiefs of

The newspaper added that the message denied accusations that Russia was aware of Egypt's intention to nationalize the canal, or had instigated the move.

The message was delivered by the Soviet charge d'affaires in Paris.

FAVORS CHANGE IN UNIFORMITY CLAUSE OF STATE

By DICK HOENIG

HARRISBURG (P)—Senate Republican Floor Leader Mahany has expressed hope that someday the Legislature "may pass" a proposal to amend the "uniformity" clause from the state constitution.

That clause requires uniform tax rates upon the same class of subjects and thus bars such levies as a graduated income tax.

"We run into trouble on something like a graduated personal income tax—if we have an income tax, not on a graduated corporation tax," Mahany explained.

During the 1955 Legislature the Democratic controlled House approved a proposed constitutional amendment, excluding income taxes from the uniformity clause. It was killed in the Senate by Republicans.

Mahany commented on the uniformity clause following a hearing by a special legislative committee comparing the effect of local and state taxes.

One witness, Dr. Albert I. Raizman, a Duquesne University professor and public accountant, recommended graduated rates on corporation income be considered "to give the small corporation an opportunity to earn and to expand in the state."

He said small corporations "are being slowly forced out of business because the tax laws in this state apply only to corporations and not to non-incorporated businesses."

Leonard W. Nattien, Ridge-wood, N.J., corporate tax administrator of Curtiss-Wright Corp., said his firm moved into Pennsylvania last year "principally because Pennsylvania had something to offer us despite the tax implication."

"If a company wants to move into a state because of tax treatment it doesn't come to Pennsylvania," he said. "You come into Pennsylvania to get what Pennsylvania can give you."

He listed as the "other factors" that influenced Curtiss-Wright to build a research and development center at Quakana as: Potential engineering talent and experience; a location fitting the dispersion directives of defense authorities; a source of high-type labor; and the easy availability of power and water.

RAGING FIRE GUTS FACTORY

CHESTER, Pa. (P)—Fire destroyed a three-story factory building 10 blocks north of the center of Chester Wednesday night, causing an estimated $225,000 damage and minor injuries to nine firemen who battled the general alarm blaze.

The blaze broke out shortly before 10:30 p.m. and was not brought under control until early Thursday by the 140 firemen summoned to the scene.

The damage estimate was made by firemen and by operators of the seven manufacturing firms which occupied the building, owned by Avery Blake of Swarthmore.

The factory, virtually gutted, is located about three blocks from Crozier Hospital between Upland and Crosby streets. Authorities probed the ruins today seeking the cause of the conflagration.

MONROE, Mich. (P)—A Greyhound bus and an auto hauling truck crashed head-on near Monroe early Thursday, killing three persons and injuring 22, State Police said.

Troopers of the Erie post said the truck driver and two bus passengers were killed. Two of the dead were identified as Francis G. Pesko of Detroit, the trucker; and Mrs. Frankie Mae Semple, 38, of Detroit. The other victim was not identified immediately.

SAYS LEADER "TOOK" MONEY

JIM THORPE, Pa. (P)—Rep. Charles C. Smith, Republican candidate for auditor general, said Thursday the Leader administration has attempted to take at least 10 per cent of the 15 million dollars in raises granted to state employees for political purposes.

In a speech prepared for delivery at a Republican rally in this Carbon County community, Smith said:

"If Adlai Stevenson is half as interested in justice as he claims to be, I am sure he would gag on the food tonight in Harrisburg if he knew the full story of privation and hardship visited on the thousands of low paid workers forced to buy $50 tickets with money needed in their families."

Smith referred to the Democratic fund raising dinner tonight where Stevenson, the party's presidential candidate, will kick off his political campaign.

Smith said the business of state government has been at a virtual standstill for a week "as everybody has been put to work by Gov. Leader in the political campaign of Stevenson."

In another address, U.S. Sen. James H. Duff, candidate for reelection, said his opponent, former Mayor Joseph S. Clark Jr., Philadelphia, "misrepresented my voting record in Washington."

Clark said last weekend that Duff had been absent on a large prong of roll call votes in the Senate.

Irish Boy Said To Be Animal-Like

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (P)—Police have discovered a boy—apparently about 7—who they said has never bathed, cannot eat human food, who grunts like an animal and roosts like a chicken.

Sgt. Tagi Rose said the "pitiful little boy" was found in a hen house at Down Patrick, County Down, 15 miles from Belfast.

He has been taken to a home in Belfast and turned over to a team of physicians for examination.

Sgt. Ross said a group of children playing "hide and seek" ran into the hen house, which adjoins a cottage occupied by a widow and her two grown daughters.

The children found the boy perched on a roost with the hens and roosters.

Police would not give the name of the widow, who is being questioned.

HARRISBURG (P)—The General State Authority will open bids Oct. 24 for the construction of a one-story brick addition to the gymnasium of the Scotland School for Veterans' Children in Franklin County.

It will house a swimming pool 35 by 75 feet to be used by more than 400 children. The building will be connected with the present gym facilities and will have a gallery seating about 250 spectators.

Add almond extract to plain Bavarian Cream for piquant flavor.

24 TO PROBE PIKE

HARRISBURG (P)—A Dauphin County grand jury probe of Pennsylvania Turnpike operations under Republican control today is in the hands of a 24-member panel. Six housewives, 10 retired men, 2 truckers, a businessman, factory foreman, painter, nurse and mechanic were chosen Wednesday to conduct the investigation starting Oct. 22.

Teen-ager Dies; Jeep Overturns

POTTSTOWN, Pa. (P)—Fred Shade, 16 son of Dr. and Mrs. J.G. Shade, was injured fatally when his jeep overturned in near-by Gilbertsville Wednesday.

Young Shade was riding alone.

He was found unconscious alongside the overturned vehicle near Rt. 73 and Congo Road and died later in Memorial Hospital of a compound skull fracture. The Shade family lives near Gilbertsville.

LONDON (P)—Prof. A. M. Low, 68, British scientist credited with designing the first guided missile, died Thursday.

During World War I Low was in charge of the Royal Flying Corps experimental works. He designed what has been heralded as the first guided missile—a rocket controlled by radio.

Low's revolutionary ideas covered a wide range from inventing a cigarette that dropped no ash to photographing sound.

To the Man Who is Hesitating...

There are many motorists here in this community who have given serious consideration to the purchase of a new Cadillac car this year—and yet, for one reason or another, have not made the move.

If you are among them, we hope that you will pause to read the little message that follows. For we are sure you will find it interesting.

Ordinarily, when a man hesitates to make the move to Cadillac, it is because he is not familiar with the practical aspects of Cadillac ownership.

Insofar as original cost is concerned, a Cadillac is eminently practical. Several models, in fact, are actually priced competitively with the so-called "medium-priced" makes.

Operating and maintenance costs are also remarkably low. We have heard it said by new owners that Cadillac is the most economical automobile they have ever owned.

And as for resale value—well, Cadillac traditionally retains a greater share of its worth through the years than any other motor car in the land.

In short, the great Cadillac car represents one of the wisest and soundest automotive investments on the highway today.

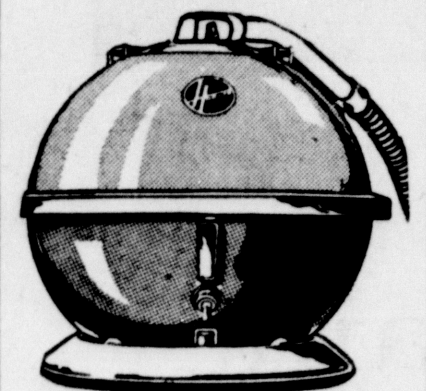

The moral of our message is this: It is still not too late to set things right in a 1956 Cadillac of your own!

We have a selection of new Cadillacs on hand—and we can promise you both prompt delivery and a generous trade-in allowance.
